

Nonlinear Equations Solving, Revisited

A. Griewank

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, `griewank@mathematik.hu-berlin.de`

Recent research on general nonlinear equation solving has mostly focussed on the semi-smooth case. We will reconsider here some ideas on applying adjoint based quasi-Newton methods and on modifying Newton's method for (nearly) singular nonlinear systems.